

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

Gaining a greater understanding of our emotions.
Start to develop friendships with other children and join in games with them.
Grow their own independence at finding their own coat, bag and water bottle at home time.

Communication and Language

Singing songs linked to animals
Start to develop conversations relating to the texts.
Learn new Vocabulary linked to the texts.

Physical Development

Fine and Gross motor skills - Building houses for 3 little pigs. - Dressing and undressing using the dressing up outfits.
Begin to start to zip up own coat at home time.

Pre-School Summer 1 Under the Sea

Expressive Arts and Design

Notice patterns with strong contrasts such as faces.
Start to develop pretend play with different props and resources.
Begin to express feeling and opinions through making marks.

Literacy

Focus texts: The three little pigs, Hansel and Gretel and Little Red Riding Hood.
Enjoying the different stories with the adults in the room
Role play the different stories using props such as masks and costumes.

Understanding of the World

Make connections between the features of their family and other families.
Notice differences between people

Mathematics

Being able to recognise lots and few by sorting out resources.
Counting Rhymes that go up as well as down
Start to understand positional language such as under, next to and on top.